You should rely only on the information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus and any prospectus supplements. We have not authorized anyone else to provide you with different information. If anyone provides you with different or inconsistent information, you should not rely on it. You should assume that the information appearing in this prospectus and any prospectus supplements, as well as the information we file with the SEC and incorporate by reference in this prospectus, is accurate only as of the date of the documents containing the information.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in shares of our common stock involves a risk of loss. Before investing in our common stock, you should carefully consider the risk factors described in “Risk Factors” under Item 1A in our periodic filings with the SEC, including, but not limited to, our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 and subsequent periodic filings containing updated disclosures of such factors, together with all of the other information included in this prospectus and any prospectus supplement and the other information that we have incorporated by reference. Any of these risks, as well as other risks and uncertainties, could harm our business and financial results and cause the value of our securities to decline, which in turn could cause you to lose all or a part of your investment. These risks are not the only ones facing our company. Additional risks not currently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial also may impair our business.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus, any prospectus supplements and the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus, may include statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (“Securities Act”), and section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (“Exchange Act”). All statements other than statements of historical fact included in this prospectus, any prospectus supplements and the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus may be deemed to be forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements can often be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology, such as “expects,” “anticipates,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “seeks,” “estimates” and variations of these words and similar expressions. Examples of forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding the following:

- o our business plans and financing plans and requirements,

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance or results, and are subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties. Our actual results may vary materially and adversely from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements as a result of a number of factors, including the risks described in “Risk Factors” under Item 1A in our periodic filings with the SEC, including, but not limited to, our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, and subsequent periodic filings containing updated disclosures of such factors. You may obtain copies of these documents as described under “Where You Can Find More Information “ and “Incorporation by Reference” in this prospectus. Except to fulfill our obligations under the applicable securities laws, we do not undertake to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which it is made.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The proceeds from the sale of the shares of common stock offered in this prospectus are solely for the account of the selling stockholder. We will not receive any of the proceeds from sales of shares of common stock by the selling stockholder.

THE SELLING STOCKHOLDER

On February 15, 2007, we and our wholly-owned subsidiary, e-pay Holdings Limited, acquired the entire issued share capital of Omega Logic Limited, a company organized and existing under the laws of England and Wales (“Omega”), from Eposs Limited, the sole stockholder of Omega (such transaction, the “Acquisition”), pursuant to a purchase and sale agreement entered into by the parties (“Omega Agreement”). As part of the consideration for the share capital of Omega, we agreed to issue to Eposs Limited 275,429 shares of our common stock, par value $0.02 per share, in payment of the stock portion of the Acquisition consideration, with 199,686 shares delivered at closing and the remaining 75,743 shares to be held in a lock box maintained by us as “Retention Shares” in accordance with, and for securing certain obligations of Eposs Limited under, the Omega Agreement. The Retention Shares not claimed by us are to be released to Eposs Limited on March 31, 2008 under the terms of the Omega Agreement.

Under the terms of the Omega Agreement, we agreed to file the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part with the SEC for the benefit of the selling stockholder and to use our commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and file required amendments and supplements to keep such registration statement current and effective, subject to the terms of the Omega Agreement, until the earlier of (i) the date on which Eposs Limited may sell all of its shares covered by this prospectus without restriction by the volume limitations of Rule 144(e) of the Securities Act, or (ii) such time as all the shares issued to Eposs Limited have been sold pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part. The selling stockholder may offer the shares for resale from time to time.

The selling stockholder has not had a material relationship with us during the three years prior to the date of this prospectus.

The table below shows the number of shares of common stock owned by the selling stockholder based upon information the selling stockholder has provided to us as of April 3, 2007. We cannot estimate the number of shares the selling stockholder will hold after completion of this offering because the selling stockholder may sell all, none or a portion of the shares. We have assumed for purposes of this table that none of the shares offered by this prospectus will be held by the selling stockholder after the completion of this offering.

Name of Selling Stockholder	Number of Shares of Common Stock Beneficially Owned Prior to Offering	Number of Shares Being Offered Under this Prospectus	Number of Shares Beneficially Owned After Offering
Eposs Limited (1)	275,429(2)	275,429(2)	0

(1) John Peter Williams is the controlling shareholder of Eposs Limited, and as such may be deemed to beneficially own the shares held by Eposs Limited.

(2) Amount includes 75,743 "Retention Shares" held in a lock box maintained by us, as described above.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling stockholder may, from time to time, sell any or all of its shares of our common stock offered by this prospectus and any prospectus supplements directly to one or more purchasers (including pledgees) or through brokers or dealers who may act solely as agents or who may acquire shares as principals, and the selling stockholder will act independently of us in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner and size of each sale.

The shares may be sold in one or more transactions at:

- o fixed prices;

- o prevailing market prices at the time of sale;

- o prices related to the prevailing market prices;

- o varying prices determined at the time of sale; or

- o otherwise negotiated prices.

The shares may be sold by one or more of, or a combination of, the following methods, in addition to any other method permitted under this prospectus, to the extent permitted by applicable law:

- o in ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;

- o in block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

- o via purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;

- o on the Nasdaq Global Select Market, or on any other national securities exchange or inter-dealer quotation system on which our common stock may be listed or quoted at the time of sale;

- o by pledge to secure debts or other obligations;

- o in privately negotiated transactions;

- o by settlement of short sales entered into after the date of this prospectus; or

- o through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether through an options exchange or otherwise.

In connection with the sale of shares of common stock or interests therein, the selling stockholder may, subject to the terms of its agreement with us and applicable law, (i) enter into transactions with broker-dealers or others, who in turn may engage in short sales of the shares in the course of hedging the positions they assume, (ii) sell short or deliver shares to close out positions or (iii) loan shares to broker-dealers or others that may in turn sell such shares. The selling stockholder may enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions that require the delivery of the shares. The broker-dealer or other financial institution may then resell or transfer these shares through this prospectus and any prospectus supplements. The selling stockholder may also loan or pledge its shares to a broker-dealer or other financial institution. The broker-dealer or other financial institution may sell the shares which are loaned or pursuant to a right to rehypothecate while pledged or, upon a default, the broker-dealer or other financial institution may sell the pledged shares by use of this prospectus and any prospectus supplements. The broker-dealer or other financial institution may use shares pledged by the selling stockholder or borrowed from the selling stockholder or others to settle those sales or to close out any related open borrowing of shares, and may use securities received from the selling stockholder in settlement of those derivatives to close out any related open borrowing of shares. We have been advised by the selling stockholder that it has not, as of the date of this prospectus, entered into any arrangement with any agent, broker or dealer for the sale of the shares.

The selling stockholder may pay usual and customary or specifically negotiated brokerage fees or commissions in connection with its sales. The selling stockholder has agreed not to use the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part for purposes of an underwritten offering without our consent.

The selling stockholder and any broker-dealers or agents that participate with the selling stockholder in the offer or sale of the shares offered under the prospectus and any prospectus supplements may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act. Any commissions paid or any discounts or concessions allowed to any such persons, and any profits received on the resale of the shares by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act. Because the selling stockholder may be deemed to be an "underwriter" within the meaning of the Securities Act, the selling stockholder will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. Neither the delivery of any prospectus and any prospectus supplement, nor any other action taken by the selling stockholder or any purchaser relating to the purchase or sale of the shares under this prospectus and any prospectus supplements shall be treated as an admission that any of them is an underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act, relating to the sale of any shares.

Any selling stockholder who is a broker-dealer is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act. Additionally, any selling stockholder who is an affiliate of a broker-dealer, and who did not buy securities in the ordinary course of business or who at the time of purchase had an agreement or understanding to distribute any of the shares, is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act. To our knowledge, the selling stockholder is not a broker-dealer or an affiliate of a broker-dealer.

To the extent required by the Securities Act, a prospectus supplement or amendment will be filed to disclose the specific number of shares of common stock to be sold, the name of the selling stockholder, the purchase price, the public offering price, the names of any agent or dealer, and any applicable commissions paid or discounts or concessions allowed with respect to a particular offering and other facts material to the transaction.

We will make copies of this prospectus and any prospectus supplements available to the selling stockholder and have informed it of the need for delivery of copies of this prospectus and any prospectus supplements to purchasers at or prior to the time of any sale of the shares offered hereby.

We are required to pay certain fees and expenses incurred by us incident to the registration of the shares. We have agreed to indemnify the selling stockholder against certain losses, claims, damages and liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act. The selling stockholder will bear all fees and expenses, if any, of counsel or other advisors to the selling stockholder and all commissions, brokerage fees and discounts, if any, associated with the sale of the shares.

We may suspend the use of this prospectus and any prospectus supplements upon any event or circumstance which necessitates the making of any changes in the registration statement or prospectus, or any document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated therein by reference, so that, in the case of the registration statement, it will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and that in the case of the prospectus and any prospectus supplements, they will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

The shares will be sold only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers if required under applicable state securities laws.

The selling stockholder will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, including Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of shares of common stock by or on behalf of the selling stockholder.

Any shares covered by this prospectus that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be sold under that rule rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

We cannot assure you that the selling stockholder will sell any or all of the shares common stock offered hereunder.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law authorizes a court to award, or a corporation's board of directors to grant, indemnity to directors and officers in terms sufficiently broad to permit indemnification under certain circumstances for liabilities (including reimbursement for expenses incurred) arising under the Securities Act. Section 145 provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful.

Section 145 further provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery or such other court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all of the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Delaware Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper. Section 145 provides that expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an officer or director in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

Article Eighth of the Registrant's certificate of incorporation and Article VII of the Registrant's bylaws provide for indemnification of the Registrant's directors and officers to the maximum extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law.

As permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, Article Ninth of the Registrant's certificate of incorporation provides that a director of the Registrant shall not be personally liable to the Registrant or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Registrant or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit.

The Registrant also maintains, and intends to continue to maintain, insurance for the benefit of its directors and officers to insure these persons against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the securities laws.

Item 16. Exhibits

The index to exhibits appears immediately following the signature pages to this Registration Statement.

Item 17. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii) or (x), for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date it is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or the prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question of whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as counsel to Euronet Worldwide, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), in connection with the filing of a Registration Statement on Form S-3 (the "Registration Statement") with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), relating to 275,429 shares of the Company's common stock, $0.02 par value per share, including the associated preferred stock purchase rights ("Rights"), issued to the selling stockholder listed in the Registration Statement (collectively, the "Shares"). The Rights are issued pursuant to the Rights Agreement, dated March 21, 2003, as amended, by and between the Company and Computershare Trust Company, N.A. (formerly EquiServe Trust Company, N.A.) (the "Rights Agreement").

In connection with this opinion, we have examined originals or copies certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction of such documents, corporate records and other instruments as we have deemed necessary for the purposes of this opinion, including (i) the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company, as amended, (ii) the Bylaws of the Company, as amended, (iii) minutes and records of the corporate proceedings of the Company with respect to the issuance of the Shares, (iv) the Rights Agreement and (v) the Registration Statement.

For purposes of this opinion, we have assumed (i) the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, (ii) the conformity to the originals of all documents submitted to us as copies and the authenticity of the originals, (iii) the genuineness of the signatures of persons signing all documents in connection with which this opinion is rendered, (iv) the authority of such persons signing on behalf of the parties thereto other than the Company and (v) the due authorization, execution and delivery of all documents by the parties thereto other than the Company. As to any facts material to the opinion expressed herein which we have not independently established or verified, we have relied upon the statements and representations of officers and other representatives of the Company and others.

We render no opinion herein as to matters involving the laws of any jurisdiction other than (i) the federal law of the United States of America and (ii) the Delaware General Corporation Law (which as used herein includes the statutory provisions contained therein, the Delaware Constitution and judicial opinions interpreting these laws). We advise you that the issues addressed by this opinion may be governed in whole or in part by other laws, and we express no opinion as to whether any relevant difference exists between the laws upon which our opinion is based and any other laws that may actually govern.

Based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications, exclusions and other limitations contained in this letter, we are of the opinion that the Shares have been duly authorized, were legally issued, and are fully paid and non-assessable.

The opinion set forth above as it relates to the Rights is limited to the valid issuance of the Rights. We do not express any opinion herein with respect to any other aspect of the Rights, the effect of equitable principles or fiduciary considerations relating to the adoption of the Rights Agreement or the issuance of the Rights or the enforceability or any particular provisions of the Rights Agreement.

This opinion is limited to the specific issues addressed herein, and no opinion may be inferred or implied beyond that expressly stated herein. This opinion is rendered on the date hereof and we have no continuing obligation hereunder to inform you of changes of law, including judicial interpretations of law, or of facts of which we become aware after the date hereof.

We consent to the filing of this opinion with the Commission as an exhibit to the Registration Statement and to the reference to our firm under the caption "Legal Matters" in the prospectus which is a part of the Registration Statement. In giving such consent, we do not consider that we are "experts", within the meaning of the term used in the Act or the rules and regulations of the Commission promulgated thereunder, with respect to any part of the Registration Statement, including this opinion as an exhibit or otherwise.
