EURONET NAMES DAN STEVENS CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

May 5, 1999 – Budapest, Hungary – Euronet Services Inc. (Nasdaq: EEFT) has named Daniel C. Stevens, a senior financial services executive with strong international experience, as the Company's new Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Stevens assumed his post with Euronet on April 20, 1999.

As Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Stevens is responsible for the finance-related areas of Euronet's entire operations, which comprise a European ATM network and a US-based software company. He is based in Overland Park, Kansas, together with Chairman and CEO Michael J. Brown.

"Dan Stevens brings an excellent mix of in-depth financial expertise and international experience to Euronet," said Michael Brown. "His proven ability to manage growth will be a valuable asset to us as the Company continues to mature."

Mr. Stevens was most recently a partner in Rochdale Principals, a new agricultural finance venture organized with other senior executives in the Kansas City area. Prior to that, he was Senior Vice President, Chief Financial and Risk Officer for U.S. Central, a $25-billion AAA-rated financial intermediary and technology, operational and payment provider for the $350-billion U.S. credit union industry. He has also served as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer-USA for the trading, corporate finance and branch operations of the Dutch bank ABN AMRO, as well as Chief Financial Officer for the US operations of the French bank Crédit Agricole. He began his financial career as a Certified Public Accountant in the financial services division of Arthur Andersen & Company in Chicago.

Established in 1994, Euronet is a provider of end-to-end electronic banking solutions and transaction processing for retail banks. The Company operates an independent ATM network in Europe and owns a US-based software subsidiary, ARKSYS, specialized in electronic payment and transaction delivery systems. Together with ARKSYS, Euronet offers ATM network participation, outsourced management solutions, and comprehensive software solutions to retail banks around the world. Euronet ATMs accept transactions for a wide range of bank cards through agreements with Visa and MasterCard/Europay sponsor banks and international card issuers such as American Express and Diners Club International. The ARKSYS subsidiary has over 150 active retail banking clients in 60 countries.
