

Tidel partners with Euronet for PaySpot recharge services

LEAWOOD, KANSAS, USA— Nov. 13, 2002 – Euronet Worldwide, Inc. (Nasdaq:EEFT), a leading provider of secure electronic financial transactions solutions, today announced that Tidel Technologies, Inc., an ATM manufacturer, will join in the introduction of PaySpot, the U.S.-based prepaid recharge services program. Euronet has also announced the PaySpot program with two other ATM industry leaders.

PaySpot enables consumer to purchase wireless airtime and long distance calling plans from ATMs or checkout counters throughout the United States. The prepaid wireless airtime can be purchased for all major and most regional wireless carries, including Verizon Wireless, AT&T Wireless, T-Mobile Wireless, Cingular Wireless and Alltel Wireless. Additionally, four domestic U.S., three U.S.-to-Mexico and three international prepaid long distance calling plans are available.

"PaySpot provides a great way for ATM owners to enhance the revenue stream generated by their ATM." says Flynt Moreland, Tidel senior vice president. "Euronet has found an innovative way to drive more traffic to our ATMs."

"These types of value added transactions provide revenue-generating income and attract customers who appreciate convenience," said Michael J. Brown, Euronet Worldwide chairman and CEO. "We are pleased to provide this service in conjunction with Tidel, to enable clients to offer a cost-effective electronic distribution channel."
