

Euronet Worldwide, Inc. Announces Its North America 2021 ENGAGE Payments Solutions and Innovations Conference

August 3, 2021

LEAWOOD, Kan., Aug. 03, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Euronet Worldwide, Inc. (NASDAQ: EFFT), a leading global financial technology solutions and payments provider, announced today the details for its North America 2021 ENGAGE Payments Solutions and Innovations Conference, an event for technology and business leaders who are driving modernization and digital transformation strategies at fintechs, retailers and financial institutions.

The two-day ENGAGE conference will be held in New York City at the Marriott Marquis on Oct. 4-5, 2021.

Conference speakers include Tim Winston, Senior Assurance Consultant, Amazon Web Services, who will address the security and industry compliance standards required when utilizing cloud services to improve agility and global reach. Additionally, Aser Blanco, Head of Americas, Google Cloud Financial Services, will address best practices for leveraging the cloud for financial services.

Other noted speakers and highlights include:

- Greg Orme, programme director at the London Business School and globally acclaimed speaker and author, will present on how to redefine leadership skills to succeed in an increasingly fast-paced world. "This is a 'must attend' conference whether you're a fintech or large bank because the way payments are being switched and processed around the world is changing at an accelerating pace," Orme said. "To stay ahead of the disruption, you need to know about the most innovative technology available. Come and see what's happening at the cutting edge – you'll be glad you did."
- Dr. Martin Brückner, Euronet Senior Vice President and Chief Technology Officer, will present on the implementation of seamless connections to real time payments networks and other innovations provided by Euronet's REN payments technology.
- Forrester Research will provide insight into how evolving consumer expectations are driving the need for real time payments globally and explain the challenges financial institutions must overcome to become an efficient participant in real time payments networks.
- Expert discussion panels with leaders from the financial and payments industries will cover innovation journeys in their organizations, the power of data to engage customers and build loyalty and other critical issues facing businesses today.

There is no registration fee to attend the conference. However, space is limited and must be reserved. Prospective attendees can visit the Euronet Software Solutions website at <https://www.euronetsoftware.com/engage-nyc-2021/> to register, read the full conference agenda and book accommodations under the hotel's conference group rates.
